When my little girl was one month old, she had a seab form on deer face. It kept spreading until she was completely covered from head to foot. Then she had buils. She had forty on her head at one time, and more on her body. When six months old she did not weigh seven pounds, a pound and a half less than at birth. Then her skin started to dry up and got so had she could not shut her eyes to sleep, but lay with them half open. Packing House Managers Issue an Ultimatum to the Striking Employes.

MUST RETURN TO WORK OR BE DISCHARGED

Some of the Men Anxious to Go Back, but Most of Them Remain Firm-Quiet Prevails Without Any Sign of Disorder.

South Omaha packing house managers, After a conference yesterday afternoon, decided on issuing an ultimatum to the striking employes. This is, that unless the men return to their places at the old wages by Monday morning they will be absolutely discharged, and then the houses will be manned with entirely new forces.

The managers are confident they would have no great difficulty in securing new men. They say they are receiving aplications from men who want work in Iowa and Nebraska and that they can get all they

While the strikers in the main seem to be standing firm, a large number are anxious to have the differences settled at once, and some of them say that if an agree-ment is not reached soon they will go back to work any how.

is expected that the committees sent to Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City will report some time this forenoon. A meeting has been called for 10 o'clock sharp this morning, when the report from the special committee will be read. There were fully 1,000 men at the meeting last night. Clippings from newspapers were read and speeches urging the men to stand by their rights were delivered by a number of the

YESTERDAY AT THE HOUSES. At all the packing houses yesterday every-thing was quiet. A few new men have been put to work, but the packers are still run-ning very light forces in the hope of being able to induce the old men to come back.
"We will wait until noon today on the old men," said Mr. Cudahy, "and if they do not come back to work by that time we will have to get new men to fill the places." "In case the men agree to cancel the paragraph in their proposition which reads that they will not go to work until the grievances are settled in Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis, would the packers be apt to accept the scale of wages submitted by the men?"

was asked by the reporter.
"No," said Mr. Cudahy. "We are paying Chicago wages now and that is all we can stand. The men who come back will have to go to work at the same wages they were getting when they went out. I am told that a great many of the men want to come back but are afraid to do so. Several of them have admitted to me that they have no grievance whatever. It was our intention to begin killing hogs at 9 o'clock this morning, but word was sent over here to wait until noon, it was more than likely that some of the old men would go to work." At the Hammond plant 200 cattle were killed and about 800 hogs. Eight cars o hogs were loaded to be shipped out and five Eight cars of cars of cattle. The manager said that word had been sent to him that some of the old men wanted to come back and would do so, but they did not care to go into the plant when the gang that was out was watching of cattle. The manager said that word About twenty new men were pu to work here. One man came down from Omsha with a dozen men. He left his gang in the suburbs and went into the house and made arrangements for The gang then split up and entered the place one at a time in order to avoid the strikers. "We have been receiving applications from men who want work from Iowa and from small towns throughout Ne-In fact, the country is full of unemployed men, and we can get all we want. It is true that it is not an easy ekmen at but we had to teach the gang that has gone out, and we can teach another gang just as easily as we did them."

A few more men went out at Swift's yes terday but Manager Foster said he was killing both hogs and cattle just the same. "Some new men have been put to work," said Mr. Foster, 'and if the old men do not come back pretty soon we are liable to run out of patience and put men on who are willing to accept our pay. I am not particularly alarmed about any trouble, but one thing is absolutely certain, and that is if there is any law to protect our property and the men who want to work I propose to see that it is enforced. The men that I have talked with tell me they have no grievance. That some of them want to come back, but they are afraid to do so. I will protect our property and the men under any and all

When asked if any of the hog butchers intended going back to work, one of the union men who works in that department said that the rumor was false. "There will not be a single man go back if we can keep them," said he, "by reasonable argument or Five Drowned in a Cloudburst. TRINIDAD, Colo., Aug. 3.-Last night there was a cloudburst in the hills above Berwynd, and the water came down the Berwynd, and the water came down the canon leading to that place in such volume that a party of five persons, who were caught in the flood, were swept away and drowned. Cando, the mail carrier between Chicosa station and Berwynd, on the arrival of the Gulf train from Denver at Chicosa, secured an Italian miner, wife and two children, a boy and girl, as passengers for Berwynd. They had just entered the canon when the storm came upon them, and so quicqly came the rush of water that they were unable to escape. A searching party at once started out, and by evening most of the bodies had been recovered.

Husband's Story of the Career of an Erstwhi'e Swedish Frima Donna.

OLOF BERGSTROM'S DIVORCE TROUBLES

Alleges that His Wife Was Addicted to the Flowing Bowl and Was a Source of Unhappiness and Expense-Other Court Cases.

The celebrated divorce case of Bergstrom against Birgstrom has taken another turn in the district court. Yesterday Olaf Bergstrom filed his answer and cross bill, in which he alleges that the numerous allegations made by Mrs. Bergstrom in her petition are absolutely false, and tells a story of the plaintiff's wrong doings that rivals the charges made by her when she had her

The Bergstrom case has been regarded with some interest, as Olaf Bergstrom is one of the most prominent Swedes in Nebraska. Years ago he was a Baptist preacher at Moline, Ill., but that life grew wearisome and he came west and went into he land bus ness in connection with the Union Pacific railroad. He founded the town of Gothenberg in Dawson county, and for a good many years owned most of the village He also went into the Swedish colonization business, and located a number of settlements of his countrymen in this country. When going to Sweden after settlers it was his custom to hire a brass band and take it with him across the water, paying all expenses, and thus making an imposing ap-pearance on the other side. He was fairly pearance on the other side. He was fairly prosperous in these undertakings and accumulated property valued at $200,000. On July 7 his wife, Elizabeth, filed a petiion for divorce in the district court in this county. She alleged that Olaf had been unduly intimate with the flowing bowl and had also taken advantage of his absence in the old country to supplant the caresses of his wife with those who had no legal right

On July 14 Judge Walton made an order in the case by which Olaf was directed to pay $100 alimony into court for the benefit of his wife within ten days. At the explration of nine days Mrs. Bergstrom's attor-neys went before Judge Scott and obtained a writ of ne exeat regna on the represen-tation that Bergstrom was about to leave the state to avoid the order of Judge Walton Bergstrom was pretty smart, however, and he sheriff was unable to find him, so the writ has never been served.

In the cross bill filed yesterday Olaf alleges that his wife has been a habitual drunkard for ten years past. On their wedding day he took her to his home at Gothenberg, and she had no sooner arrived than she sent for beer and whisky and proceeded o accumulate a glorious jag in honor of the

Before the marriage Elizabeth was a sort of Swedish prima donna, and after the ex-piration of two weeks of their honsymoon she started out on a series of concert tours which she kept up for two years, while Olaf stayed at home and supplied the money to fill the vacuum in the financial side of the project. Olaf states that during these trips she drank to excess, and was even at times so intoxicated that she was unable to go on the stage.

He denies all the charges made in the petition, and farther alleges that his wife has been so violent for years that he has been unable to live with her, and has al-ways provided her with money, which she has spent for booze and in the society of other men. According to his statements she has spent most of his property, and now he thinks that the least the court can do is to release him from the bonds that have been a burden for many years.

They Want Divorces. A razor, toge her with a lack of conjugal affection, is what has destroyed the marital happiness of John and Angelina Plowman. At least that is what Angelina claims, and she has appealed to the district court to provide her with a divorce and her maide She asserts that within a year or two after their marriage her husband becam so violent that she was compelled to_leave him for fear of bodily harm, and that in his frenzied moods he invariably got his razor with the apparent purpose of carving her into submission

Minna Getz asks for a divorce from her husband, John Getz. She alleges cruelty and desertion as sufficient reasons why she should be free. John J. Hanighan has brought suit against J. Herbert McCloster for $1,160.49. Seven hundred and fifty dollars of this amount is claimed as due on promissory notes and the remainder for services performed. Probate Matters. The quibbles over the Byron Reed estate which have been on the dockets of the county court for a long time past have been amicably settled. All claims have been satisfied and the case withdrawn from the Margaret V. Oliver has filed a claim of $15,000 against the estate of the late Augustus Kountze. This is on account of some subscriptions to the stock of a wester company which she alleges have never been paid up.

MARTIN'S CALL. Democratic State Central Committee to Meet in Omaha Next Monday.

Just before leaving for Chicago yesterday Mr. Euclid Martin put an end to the guessing as to when the democratic state central committee would meet. He issued a call for a meeting in Omaha next Monday. He said that the date would have been set a few days sooner except for the absence from the state of several members of the committee, who could not conveniently be in Omaha before Monday.

Was a Hard Fight. H. A. Allen, John McBride, L. C. Chapman and H. C. McEvony, all of Holt county's delegation to the Sixth district republican congressional convention, were in Omaha last evening on their way home from Broken Bow. They stated that the convention was the hottest ever held in the North Platte country, thirty-six ballots being taken be-fore the decisive vote was reached. Kinkaid's men held together to the very last, and the judge was defeated only because the entire field was arrayed against him. On the thirty-sixth ballot Dorrington's men went over to Daugherty almost in a body and many of St. Rayner's delegates followed them. On the final ballot Daugherty received ninety-nine and one-half votes, half vote gave him the nomination, convention, which adjourned at 2 o'clock in the morning, was marred by no bitterness of feeling, the best of good nature prevailing among the heated contestants.

designed for summer comfort. There are chairs for every month of the year; this is for the summer of your discontent, when upholstered furniture is as hot as an oven, and the human body craves comfort. The chair is built on the lines of one of the "Old Comfort" rockers of a century ago. The back is high and the armrests very broad. The seat is shaped to the body, and the whole framework is a veritable dream of comfort. The rockers are of the "long roll" pattern, giving the easy, slow, continuous motion so much desired for a luxurious chair. The wood is elm which is hard and takes very rich finish. The head frame is handsomely carved and there are decorative mountings of brass. Our price is $3.00.

Sounds "odd" but it fits the case precisely-After a destructive cyclone, you "clear the debris," and to wipe it out of memory you must sweep it cleanafter a hurricane of business-as it is customary to the Nebraska-it behooves us to "clear away the debris," or, perhaps, more Bostonishly expressed, "To dismiss the superfluous conglomoration of unwelcome accumulations."

Right here in Omaha we call em odds and ends-good honest merchandise they are-to be sure-but of no value to us, because we never carry goods to next season-and above all, we never begin a season on broken stock.

You'll find, by carefully looking over, something you can use, in every department-and if it be your style and fit-there is a golden strike right there-because the price is likely one half what it used to be-or, perhaps a trifle above.

In our suit department we have a good many broken lots of suits-can't very well sell 'em down to the root, because we have always such a tremendous collection-same case with the trousers department-for the same reason we have some remnants in our boys' and children's department-and iu our hat department-and in our shoe department and more so in our men's furnishing stock-in shirts-underwear and the like, where the supply and demand is tremendous.

We firmly believe in cleaning house of broken lots-experience taught us so-and we therefore apply the broom of reduction, and dust off the last vestige of profit—and often below the price they could be manufactured at.

A sale for mutual benefit--we clean houseyou save the stuff,

CHOCOLAT MENTER The CHOCOLAT MENTER

Wise Man says

Chocolat - Menier.

His reasons are: Tea and Coffee create nervousness with a people too nervous already; Bitter Chocolates are not fit to make a cup of chocolate; cheap (sweet) chocolates are impure, hence injurious;

COCOA is no more like CHOCOLATE than Skimmed Milk is like Cream. Chocolat-Menier is an exquisite Vanilla Chocolate, as nourishing as meat, as low priced as other beverages, and fur superior. Ask for yellow wrapper. Your grocer has it.
